

White's Directory of Warwickshire 1850

The principal landowners are J Loveday Esq, Rev Wm Harrison, Mr Wm Ledbrook, Wm Holbech Esq, Mr John Cambery (Cambray), Mr Samuel Huggins, Mr R Hollaway and the Earl of Jersey who is also Lord of the Manor.

Arlescote contains nine houses and 43 inhabitants and maintains its own roads. Stoneton is an extra parochial liberty (sic). The census of 1841 showed 486 inhabitants and 112 houses in the parish.

The body of the church is in great want of repair. The rectory is a good residence. The Wesleyan Methodists have a chapel. There is a small free school supported by voluntary contributions; John Haynes master.

Robert Gardner, by his will of 1727, gave to the value of 6s from three estates to be given in tuppenny loaves on Easter Sunday, Whit Sunday and Christmas Day. These sums are paid by Mr Braggins, Mr Bruerton and Mr Wm Holbech.
