1697

Bernard Gilpin was inducted into the parish church of Warmington the 24th day of April 1697 by Jeremiah Tomson Vicar of Shostwell Witnesses John Neal & William Claridge. And because the Rector was living in Warwick, where he was Moderator of the King's School, Richard Hughes, A.B., was put in his place, as Vicar. At the end of the year he was promoted to a rectory in Warwickshire & Andrew Archer A.M., afterwards Rector of Solehul, succeeded him.
B. Gilpin came to live in Warmington 1st Oct. 1698
